

Los Angeles, CA – October 23, 2007: Marlin Equity Partners, LLC is pleased to announce the acquisition of Hanover Accessories, Inc., a leading designer and marketer of private label and licensed branded jewelry, hair accessories, pet accessories and seasonal novelty products for the kid, “tween”, teen and pet markets. Hanover will be integrated with Ultra*Pro, a current Marlin portfolio company, enabling Hanover to expand its distribution reach within the mass market while resulting in significant overseas sourcing efficiencies. Hanover has offices in Plymouth, Minnesota and Commerce, California.

Mark Siegel, the former EVP of Sales, Marketing and Product Development for Stravina Holdings Inc., Hanover’s former Parent, will lead the Hanover division of Ultra*Pro.

"We are extremely excited about the addition of Mark and his team and the innovative product lines, strong customer relationships and “on-trend” design capabilities that they provide," said Adam Lerner, Chief Executive Officer of the combined business. "With Marlin’s financial backing and experience in consumer products, we are well-positioned for future growth and look forward to many years of continued success. The strong partnership between the Ultra*Pro and Hanover management teams and Marlin Equity creates a unique opportunity to drive growth both through organic initiatives as well as through future acquisitions."

“We are committed to actively supporting the company’s growth initiatives going forward and are excited to welcome Hanover to our family of consumer products companies,” stated George Kase, a Principal with Marlin Equity Partners.
